 - (a) With reference to a key moment in one of your texts show how this emotional power was created. (30)
 - (b) Take key moments from the other two texts from your comparative course and compare the way in which the emotional power of these scenes was created. (40)

OR

2. “The creation of memorable characters is part of the art of good story-telling.”

Write an essay comparing the ways in which memorable characters were created and contributed to your enjoyment of the stories in the texts you have studied for your comparative course. It will be sufficient to refer to the creation of one character from each of your chosen texts. (70)

SECTION III

POETRY (70 marks)

Candidates must answer A – Unseen Poem and B – Prescribed Poetry.

A UNSEEN POEM (20 marks)

Answer either Question 1 or Question 2.

Those Winter Sundays

Sundays too my father got up early and put his clothes on in the blueblack cold,
then with cracked hands that ached
from labour in the weekday weather made banked fires blaze. No one ever thanked him.

I'd wake and hear the cold splintering, breaking.
When the rooms were warm, he'd call,
and slowly I would rise and dress,
fearing the chronic angers of that house,

Speaking indifferently to him,
who had driven out the cold
and polished my good shoes as well.
What did I know, what did I know of love's austere¹ and lonely offices²?

Robert Hayden

1. austere: harsh, strict
2. office: duty, service, daily worship

1. (a) What impression of the father-son relationship do you get from this poem? (10)
(b) Choose a phrase or line from the poem that impressed you. Explain your choice. (10)

OR

2. Write a personal response to this poem. Your answer should make close reference to the text. (20)
