SECTION II

THE COMPARATIVE STUDY (70 marks)

Candidates must answer one question from either A – The Cultural Context or B – Theme or Issue

In your answer you may not use the text you have answered on in SECTION I – The Single Text.

N.B. The questions use the word text to refer to all the different kinds of texts available for study on this course, i.e. novel, play, short story, autobiography, biography, travel writing, and film. The questions use the word reader to include viewers of films and theatre audiences.

A THE CULTURAL CONTEXT

1. “In any cultural context, deeply embedded values and attitudes can be difficult to change.”

Compare the extent to which the above statement is valid in relation to your understanding of the cultural context of at least two texts on your comparative course. (70)

OR

2. “The issue of social class is important in shaping our understanding of the cultural context of a text.”

- (a) Discuss the importance of social class in shaping your understanding of the cultural context of one text that you have studied as part of your comparative course. (30)
- (b) Compare the importance of social class in shaping your understanding of the cultural context of two other texts that you have studied as part of your comparative course. (40)

B THEME OR ISSUE

1. “Studying a theme or issue enables a reader to form both personal and universal reflections on that theme or issue.”

Compare both the personal and universal reflections that you formed on a common theme or issue in two or more texts from your comparative course. (70)

OR

2. “In many texts, a theme or issue may not be resolved to the complete satisfaction of the reader.”

(a) Discuss the extent to which a theme or issue is resolved to your satisfaction in one text on your comparative course. (30)

(b) Compare the extent to which the same theme or issue (as discussed in (a) above) is resolved to your satisfaction, in two other texts on your comparative course. (40)

SECTION III
POETRY (70 marks)

Candidates must answer A – Unseen Poem and B – Prescribed Poetry.

A UNSEEN POEM (20 marks)

Answer either Question 1 or Question 2.

The Fist

The fist clenched round my heart
loosens a little, and I gasp brightness; but it tightens again. When have I ever not loved the pain of love? But this has moved past love to mania. This has the strong clench of the madman, this is gripping the ledge of unreason, before plunging howling into the abyss.

Hold hard then, heart. This way at least you live.

Derek Walcott

1. (a) Walcott expresses powerful emotions in this poem. Choose one emotion present in the poem and briefly explain how it is conveyed. Make reference to the text in support of your answer. (10)

- (b) Write a brief personal response to the final line of the poem.

Hold hard then, heart. This way at least you live.

Support your answer with reference to the poem. (10)

OR

2. Discuss the poet's use of language in "The Fist". Your answer should make close reference to the text. (20)

B PRESCRIBED POETRY (50 marks)

Candidates must answer one of the following questions (1 – 4).

1. Elizabeth Bishop

“Bishop’s carefully judged use of language aids the reader to uncover the intensity of feeling in her poetry.”

To what extent do you agree or disagree with the above statement? Support your answer with reference to the poetry of Elizabeth Bishop on your course.

2. Gerard Manley Hopkins

“Hopkins’ innovative style displays his struggle with what he believes to be fundamental truths.”

In your opinion, is this a fair assessment of his poetry? Support your answer with suitable reference to the poetry of Gerard Manley Hopkins on your course.

3. Derek Mahon

“Mahon uses language and imagery to transform personal observations into universal reflections.”

Write your response to this statement with reference to the poems by Derek Mahon on your course.

4. Sylvia Plath

“Plath’s provocative imagery serves to highlight the intense emotions expressed in her poetry.”

To what extent do you agree or disagree with this assessment of her poetry? Support your answer with suitable reference to the poetry of Sylvia Plath on your course.
