Notice of Data Subject Rights

Right of Access

The data subject has the rights to obtain from St. Munchin's College (Controller) confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning him or her is being processed and where such personal data is being processed, he / she will have the right to access their personal data and ascertain the purpose of any processing, the categories of personal data concerned, the recipients or categories of recipient to whom the personal data has been or will be disclosed, in particular any recipients in third countries or international organisations, the period for which the personal data will be retained or stored or if not possible the criteria used to determine that period, the right to request from the controller rectification or erasure of their personal data or restriction of processing of personal data concerning the data subject or their right to object to such processing, the right to lodge a complaint to the supervisory authority (Data Protection Commissioner), in the event that the personal data was not collected from the data subject any available information as to their source and the existence of any automated decision-making profiling and at least in such events meaningful information about the logic involved as well as the significance and the envisaged consequences of such processing for the data subject. In the event of personal data being transferred to a third country or to an international organisation the data subject has the right to be informed of the appropriate safeguards relating to the transfer. The data subject also has the right to obtain a copy of the personal data undergoing processing from the controller.

Right to Rectification

The data subject shall have the right to obtain from the controller without undue delay the rectification of inaccurate personal data concerning him or her. Taking into account the purposes of the processing, the data subject shall have the right to have incomplete personal data completed, including by means of providing a supplementary statement.

Right to erasure ('right to be forgotten')

The data subject has the right to obtain from the controller the erasure of personal data concerning him or her without undue delay and the controller shall be obliged to erase their personal data without undue delay where one of the following grounds applies:

- (a) the personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed;
- (b) the data subject withdraws consent to the processing of his or her personal data for one or more specific purposes, or where the European Union or Member State law prohibit the consenting by data subjects to the processing of special categories of personal data and where there is no other legal ground for the processing;

(c) the data subject objects to the processing on grounds relating to his or her particular situation, at any time to processing of personal data concerning him or her based on the grounds that processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller or processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the controller or by a third party, except where such interests are overridden by the interests or fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject which require protection of personal data, in particular where the data subject is a child (except where processing is carried out by public authorities in the performance of their tasks) and there are no overriding legitimate grounds for the processing, or the data subject objects to the processing of their personal data for direct marketing purposes including profiling for direct marketing purposes .

(d) the personal data has been unlawfully processed;

(e) the personal data has to be erased for compliance with a legal obligation in Union or Member State law to which the controller is subject;

(f) the personal data has been collected in relation to the offer of information society services from a child under the age of 16 years of age and the consent for the processing of that child's personal information has not been given or authorised by the holder of parental responsibility over the child .

The above requirements in relation to the right to erasure shall not apply to the extent that processing is necessary:

(a) for exercising the right of freedom of expression and information;

(b) for compliance with a legal obligation which requires processing by Union or Member State law to which the controller is subject or for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller;

(c) when processing personal data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade union membership, and the processing of genetic data, biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person, data concerning health or data concerning a natural person's sex life or sexual orientation is for reasons of public interest in the area of public health or where such data is processed by or under the responsibility of a professional subject to the obligation of professional secrecy under Union or Member State law or rules established by national competent bodies or by another person also subject to an obligation of secrecy under Union or Member State law or rules established by national competent bodies.

(d) for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes subjected to the appropriate safeguards being put in place in accordance with this regulation, protecting the rights and freedoms of the data subject by the putting in place technical and organisational measures to ensure respect for the principle of data minimisation, which may include pseudonymisation; provided such purposes can be fulfilled in that manner or where further purposes for processing of such data does not permit or no longer permits the identification of data subjects, then those purposes shall be fulfilled in that manner so as to render impossible or seriously impair the achievements of the objectives of that processing or

(e) for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

Right to restriction of processing

The data subject shall have the right to obtain from the controller restriction of processing where one of the following applies:

(a) the accuracy of the personal data is contested by the data subject, for a period enabling the controller to verify the accuracy of the personal data;

(b) the processing is unlawful and the data subject opposes the erasure of the personal data and requests the restriction of their use instead;

(c) the controller no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of the processing, but they are required by the data subject for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims;

(d) the data subject has objected to processing on grounds relating to his or her particular situation, to processing of personal data concerning him or her which is based on the fact that processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller or where processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the controller or by a third party, except where such interests are overridden by the interests or fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject which require protection of personal data, in particular where the data subject is a child, with the exception of processing carried out by public authorities in the performance of their tasks; pending the verification whether the legitimate grounds of the controller override those of the data subject.

Where processing has been restricted under the above conditions, such personal data shall, with the exception of storage, only be processed with the data subject's consent or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims or for the protection of the rights of another natural or legal person or for reasons of important public interest of the Union or of a Member State.

A data subject who has obtained restriction of processing pursuant to the above-mentioned conditions shall be informed by the controller before the restriction of processing is lifted. Right to notification obligation regarding rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of processing. The controller shall communicate any rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of processing carried out in accordance with their right to rectification, erasure, and restriction of processing to each recipient to whom the personal data have been disclosed, unless this proves impossible or involves disproportionate effort. The controller shall inform the data subject about those recipients if the data subject requests it.

Right to data portability

1. The data subject shall have the right to receive the personal data concerning him or her, which he or she has provided to a controller, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and have the right to transmit those data to another controller without hindrance from the controller to which the personal data have been provided, where:

(a) the data subject has given consent to the processing of his or her personal data for one or more specific purposes or the data subject has given explicit consent to the processing of personal data for one or more specified purposes, except where Union or Member State law provide that the prohibition the processing of personal data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade union membership, and the processing of genetic data, biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person, data concerning health or data concerning a natural person's sex life or sexual orientation may not be lifted by the data subject; if the data subject has given explicit consent to the processing of those personal data for one or more specified purposes, except where Union or Member State law provide that the prohibition referred to above may not be lifted by the data subject or on a contract where the processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party or in order to take steps at the request of the data subject prior to entering into a contract ; and

(b) the processing is carried out by automated means.

2. In exercising his or her right to data portability, the data subject shall have the right to have the personal data transmitted directly from one controller to another, where technically feasible.

3. The exercise of the right to data portability shall be without prejudice to the data subject's right to erasure Article 17. which shall not apply to processing necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller.

4. provided that the right of data portability of a data subject shall not adversely affect the rights and freedoms of others.

Right to object

1. The data subject shall have the right to object, on grounds relating to his or her particular situation, at any time to processing of personal data concerning him or her is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller; or where processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the controller or by a third party, except where such interests are overridden by the interests or fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject which require protection of personal data, in particular where the data subject is a child or (processing carried out by public authorities in the performance of their tasks) including profiling based on those provisions. The controller shall no longer process the personal data unless the controller demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the data subject or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

2. Where personal data are processed for direct marketing purposes, the data subject shall have the right to object at any time to processing of personal data concerning him or her for such marketing, which includes profiling to the extent that it is related to such direct marketing.

3. Where the data subject objects to processing for direct marketing purposes, the personal data shall no longer be processed for such purposes.

4. This right to object should be brought to the notice of the data subject at the very first communication and shall be presented clearly and separately from any other information.

5. In the context of the use of information society services, and notwithstanding Directive 2002/58/EC, the data subject may exercise his or her right to object by automated means using technical specifications.

6. Where personal data are processed for scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes Article 89(1), the data subject, on grounds relating to his or her particular situation, shall have the right to object to processing of personal data concerning him or her, unless the processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out for reasons of public interest.

Right to withdraw consent

Where the processing is based on the data subject having given consent to the processing of his or her personal data for one or more specific purposes except where Union or Member State law provide that the prohibition the right to withdraw his or her consent may not be lifted by the data subject; or where consent to processing of his or her personal data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade union membership, and the processing of genetic data, biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person, data concerning health or data concerning a natural person's sex life or sexual orientation the data subject has the right to withdraw the consent at any time, without affecting the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its
